"46-23-1012. Arrest when violations of probation alleged -- probation compliance plan -- probation violator intervention. (1) At any time during probation, if a probation and parole officer, misdemeanor probation officer described in 46-23-1005(2), or an employee of a nongovernmental agency described in 46-23-1005(3) that has received authorization from its local government to make arrests reasonably believes that the probationer has violated a condition of probation, a court may issue a warrant for the arrest of the probationer or a county attorney may issue a notice to appear to answer to a charge of probation violation. The notice must be personally served upon the probationer. The warrant must authorize law enforcement officers to return the probationer to any suitable detention center.

(2) Any probation and parole officer, misdemeanor probation officer described in 46-23-1005(2), or an employee of a nongovernmental agency described in 46-23-1005(3) that has received authorization from its local government to make arrests may arrest the probationer without a warrant or may orally deputize any other officer with power of arrest to do so by giving the officer oral authorization and within 12 hours delivering to the detention center a written statement setting forth that the probationer has, in the judgment of the probation and parole officer, misdemeanor probation officer described in 46-23-1005(2), or an employee of a nongovernmental agency described in 46-23-1005(3) that has received authorization from its local government to make arrests, violated the conditions of probation. A written statement or oral authorization delivered with the probationer by the arresting officer to the official in charge of a detention center is sufficient warrant for the detention of the probationer if the probation and parole officer, misdemeanor probation officer described in 46-23-1005(2), or an employee of a nongovernmental agency described in 46-23-1005(3) that has received authorization from its local government to make arrests delivers the written statement within 12 hours of the probationer's arrest. The probation and parole officer, misdemeanor probation officer described in 46-23-1005(2), or an employee of a nongovernmental agency described in 46-23-1005(3) that has received authorization from its local government to make arrests, after making an arrest, shall present to the detaining authorities a similar statement of the circumstances of violation.

(3) A probation and parole officer, misdemeanor probation officer described in 46-23-1005(2), or an employee of a nongovernmental agency described in 46-23-1005(3) that has received authorization from its local government to make arrests may authorize a detention center to hold a probationer arrested under this section without bail for 72 hours. Within 72 hours following the probationer's detention, the probation and parole officer, misdemeanor probation officer described in 46-23-1005(2), or an employee of a nongovernmental agency described in 46-23-1005(3) that has received authorization from its local government to make arrests shall:

- (a) authorize the detention center to release the probationer;
- (b) hold an intervention hearing pursuant to 46-23-1015; or
- (c) arrange for the probationer to appear before a magistrate to set bail. In setting bail, the provisions of chapter 9 of this title regarding release on bail of persons charged with a crime apply.
- (4) If the probationer is detained and bond is set, the probation and parole officer,
